

BCPA Board Nomination 2016

This year, three positions will be opening on the Board of Directors of the BC Psychological Association (BCPA).

All the directors of the BC Psychological Association are volunteers. The Board of Directors is a group of seven BCPA members who are elected by the rest of the members of the Association. The directors are responsible for the Association both financially and legally; their role is to steer the Association and work towards the achievement of our purposes, as stated in the Constitution.

A volunteer term on the BCPA Board lasts three years. Directors are responsible for attending monthly Board meetings, as well as for serving as Board liaisons by sitting on one or more BCPA Committees. Although this is a challenging volunteer position, look no further if you want to have a real impact on how BCPA is run, and more generally on psychology and mental health care in British Columbia.

HOW THE NOMINATION AND VOTING PROCESS WORKS

You can nominate yourself, or another psychologist who has explicitly agreed to be nominated for this position. All nominees must be current BCPA members at the time of nomination. Please ensure that the nominee signs in the appropriate space to indicate acceptance of your nomination. If you are nominating yourself, please ensure to have a witness sign the form as well. All nominees must submit a brief statement of intent (100 words or less), which must be submitted to BCPA with the form below. Board statements should address any prior governance experience and vision for the profession of psychology in BC.

If more nominations than the number of openings are received for available Board positions, an election will take place by ballot. Members are entitled to vote in advance by mail, or in person at the Annual General Meeting. If necessary, ballots will be mailed out thirty days in advance of the Annual General Meeting, in accordance with BCPA by-laws. The results will be ratified at the Annual General Meeting, which will take place on November 25th, 2016.
