Senior Psychology Advisor (Psychologist)
WorkSafeBC – Richmond, British Columbia

At WorkSafeBC, we’re an award-winning employer working to make a difference in the lives of British Columbians by promoting safe and healthy workplaces. If you’re looking for a fulfilling and sustained career, join our team and be part of a dynamic organization. Our people are our number one asset, so we support our staff with generous benefits, contributions toward a secure future, and a healthy work-life balance.

As a qualified, registered psychologist, you will work as part of an interdisciplinary case-management team, focusing on the safe, timely, and durable return-to-work of injured workers.

You’ll engage in collaborative, proactive, individual case consultations, and planning and monitoring assessment and treatment services (along with other health care providers). The psychology advisor assesses injured workers to provide diagnostic, causality options, and treatment and rehabilitation recommendations. You will offer educational presentations to staff to promote an understanding of psychology and the concepts and practices of case management.

As a qualified candidate, you are able to:
- Problem-solve in a multidisciplinary, case-management setting
- Provide expertise in assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of chronic pain and psychological reactions to workplace injury and trauma

You possess the following experience and educational background:
- A doctorate in clinical psychology, neuropsychology, or counseling psychology
- Eligible to register with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia
- Recent, relevant work experience
- Training or experience in conducting psychological assessments in a medical-legal context
- Familiarity with Windows and Microsoft Office

Benefits
Imagine yourself as part of the WorkSafeBC team. Along with a competitive salary, your total compensation package as a permanent employee includes vacation, optional leave arrangements, health care and dental benefits, and contributions toward your retirement pension. Plus, professional development support:
- In-house education, mentoring, and consultation
- Access to the WorkSafeBC library and professional journals
- Professional continuing education
